

Black Cowboy, Wild Horses

Page 765

|  |  |
|--|--|
| Page 765What conclusions can you draw about the environment surrounding Boy and Warrior on page 765 from the language the author uses? Use quotes from the text to support your answer.  |  |
| Page 765How does the author feel about the natural environment based on the language he uses to describe it? What images do his words create in your mind/what do you visualize from his words? Give examples from the text to support your answer |  |
| Page 767What can you say about the storm described on page 767 from the language the author uses?  |  |
| Look through the text and find examples of what the author meant when he said, “the mustangs thought Bob was a horse and Bob thought he was one too.” Use quotes from the text to support your answer.  |  |

|   |  |
|---|--|
|   |  |
| Pg. 769Using the evidence from the text on page 769, explain how Bob feels about nature. Use quotes from the text to support your answers..   |  |
| Using evidence from the text, explain what makes Bob unique and especially equipped to bring in mustangs.  |  |
| Re-read the second paragraph on page 766, "Some people learned to read from books..." What did Bob learn to read and how?  |  |
| Page 772The author writes, "For Bob there was only the bulging of the horses' dark eyes, the quivering of their flesh, the rippling of muscles and the bending of bodies. He was now sky, plains and grass and river and horse." Explain what this means. |  |